NEVADA COMPANY LAUNCHES PREMIER SECURITY RESOURCE

Sting Surveillance's New Website Demonstrates Full Suite of Solutions for Both Commercial and Residential Customers

June 8, 2009, Henderson, Nev. – Sting Surveillance, a leading provider of advanced security and monitoring systems, has launched a new website (<http://www.stingsystems.com>) designed to act as both a security solutions portal as well as corporate identity. Rated this year by Inc. magazine as one of the fastest-growing private companies in the country, Sting continues to expand its offerings with this new helpful resource.

Far more than a simple “About Us” template, Sting’s new site is a resource to help solve even the most complex security dilemmas for homes and businesses. Sting Surveillance recommends and offers comprehensive security solutions, including surveillance and alarms for loss prevention and deterrence as well as unique technology resources tailored to individual clients’ security needs. The company provides digital video recorders, CCTV cameras, credit card verification, wireless technologies and other customized security enhancements.

“Our new site represents the growth of Sting Surveillance and gives existing and potential customers greater access to information to suit their needs,” said Joshua M. Grantz, director of business development for Sting Surveillance. “We work with companies in a wide variety of industries to provide the best security solutions, and our clients now have 24-hour access to information to help them achieve that peace-of-mind.”

Founded in 2003 with a commitment to developing cutting-edge solutions for the rapidly changing security and surveillance arena, Sting Surveillance secures and monitors thousands of businesses and homes in Southern Nevada and Arizona. The award-winning firm’s clients include hotel/casinos, bars/nightclubs, convention facilities, real estate/construction firms, restaurants, retail stores, check cashing/loan stores, homeowners associations and private residences, among others. Sting has offices in Henderson, Nev. and Tempe, Ariz.
